Please pray...

- We pray for our local politicians and their work in the community. We pray for a productive visit from Mayor Georgina Oxley upcoming at Pantry5000.
- We pray for the persecuted churches around the world. We give thanks for the many faithful Christians who, despite threats of imprisonment and death, continue to pray and bring people to faith.
- Give thanks that we have a faithful group of people on our rosters who can run our church services—continuing to bring the word of God into our community.
- We give thanks for our wardens as they continue to bring St Barnabas up to standard and the ongoing maintenance of St Aidans. Give them clarity and care as they consider which works to complete next for the benefit of Longbeach Parish.

Prayer Evening—St Paul’s Cathedral

An evening of prayer for the life and mission of our Diocese is to be held at St Paul’s Cathedral on Wednesday 15 July from 7pm to 8.30pm. Together we will seek God’s leading, pray for renewal and listen for what the Spirit is saying to the Church. Food trucks will be available in the courtyard from 6pm. There is no cost to attend but bookings are essential. Please let Natalie know in the office if you’d like to attend.

St Aidans Works

Done & In Progress:

- Electrical work—$10K
- Roof work—donated
- Overpass to entrance of hall—$1500
- New heating/cooling in vicarage—$6K
- External high pressure cleaning of church—donated
- External painting of church—$7700

Some of this upkeep will be paid by bequests. Many thanks to the faithful prayers given last week for this situation.

If you’d like to make a donation towards the ongoing maintenance costs of St Aidans please make your donations to the ADF Building Fund
